What is your Spiritual Charism?

To follow up with the Spiritual Gifts Workshop in October 2015, we will look at each of the Charisms presented. The next Charism is Wisdom. The Charism of Wisdom empowers a Christian to be a channel of God's goodness through remarkable insight that enables him or her to come up with creative solutions to specific problems and make good decisions. Examples of using this charism are looking at with love and being prayerful.

Knights of Columbus

If anyone knows of any deceased Knights of Columbus who are also veterans and are buried in Fayette County please give that information to Tina in the Parish Office by June 30.

Kaitlyn Arnold was awarded the Bishop's Sierra Altar Servers Award.

Congratulations, Kaitlyn!!

The Bishop's Annual Appeal Update

Halfway through The Bishop's Annual Appeal and we have met our diocesan goal of $23,216.95! AND... we are only $3705.95 of reaching our parish goal of $33,216.95! Thank you to those who have returned your pledges! Remember, you can also complete your pledges using the Online Giving as well!

From the Pastor's Desk...

Fr. Hartge and Fr. Dooley have been here for close to a year and are both doing excellently in their first year in the priesthood. I am confident that we can now enter phase two, which is that they both become parochial vicar-administrators (pva). Fr. Hartge will be pva for here and Fr. Dooley will be so for St. Mary and St. Sylvester. This means Fr. Hartge will be the primary contact for the parish, and he will be the immediate supervisor for the staff and volunteer leaders. He will more often have this column in the bulletin. He will be the main "point man" for the parish when someone has questions. All complaints should be directed to him as pva, all compliments to me as pastor --just kidding 😊

This will also, by lifting some of the administrative work for me, allow me to do more pastor-mentoring. I will still be here as often as I am now. I will also still be involved with parish council which helps set the vision for the parish, and the finance council which of course oversees the finances. Fr. Hartge will be taking on more of the immediate administrative and visible leadership of the parish. I have full confidence in Fr. Hartge and Fr. Dooley and look forward to working with them as they take on greater responsibility in the consortium.

In Christ,

Fr. Hahn

A Vocation Prayer

(Based on Psalm 139)

Yahweh, You examine me and know me,
You know if I am standing or sitting,
You read my thoughts from far away,
Whether I walk or lie down, You are watching.
You know every detail of my conduct.

God, you are the source of my vocation. You invite me to be Yours at every moment, and in every detail of my life. You are with me, loving me, even when I am not awake to Your Presence.

The word is not even on my tongue,
Yahweh, before You know all about it;
close behind and close in front You fence me round,
shielding me with your hand.
Such knowledge is beyond my understanding,
a height to which my mind cannot attain.

You call in my life is such a wonderful mystery to me. When I listen, I recognize Your voice calling me in every circumstance of my life. And I know that Your Spirit is guiding me and protecting me always.

It was You who created my inmost self,
and put me together in my mother's womb;
for all these mysteries I thank You;
For the wonder of myself,
for the wonder of Your works.

Thank you for the gifts and talents you have given to me; and for making me to be a Unique and special reflection of Your presence and goodness for others.

You know me through and through,
from having watched my bones take shape
when I was being formed in secret, knitted together in my mother's womb.

You know the path that will lead me to fullness of life and love. You know if my heart's journey is leading me to make a commitment of my life and love in marriage, single life, ordained priesthood, diaconate, or consecrated religious life.

God, how hard it is to grasp Your thoughts!
How impossible to count them!
I could no more count them than I could the sand,
And suppose I could, You would still be with me.

God, what seems impossible to me is possible for you. Give me the courage to respond to Your call, and to follow You with my whole heart. Wherever You lead me - I trust that You will be with me as I live my vocation.

God, examine me and know my heart,
Probe me and know my thoughts;
Make sure I do not follow harmful ways,
And guide me in the way that is everlasting.

God, You know that the deepest desire of my heart is to do Your Will - to live in Your Love. Give me Your gifts of wisdom and discernment so that I might always choose to live according to Your Heart.

Feast of Corpus Christi – The Feast of the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ

Dear Parishioners:

I wanted to run this more extensive presentation about reverence for Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The Eucharist is the Supreme Gift of the Lord to His Church – His Living Presence – Jesus Christ, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

1st - Preparing to Receive

- All Catholics who receive Holy Communion are bound to fast for a full hour before receiving the Blessed Sacrament (this means no food or drink one hour before receiving Holy Communion – exceptions to this rule include water and medicine).
- Although chewing gum is not technically breaking the fast it is still disrespectful to do so in Mass and it is completely disrespectful to receive Communion with gum still in the mouth.
- Prayer and Silence: In the time before the Mass, we should be praying and asking the Holy Spirit to help us to receive what the Lord wants to give to us. This is not meant to be the time to be catching up on the latest gossip and news – the Christian life supposes we are already speaking to our neighbors and friends outside of the Mass. The Mass is where we give God the attention. The analogy would be if a friend invited you to their house and then you spent the time talking to other people and ignored the host. The Lord has invited you for this hour, it is time for Him. Afterwards, we can and should visit with our friends out in the street or over at coffee and donuts. Others may want to spend that time making a prayer of thanksgiving as is encouraged by the Church and then go out and join the gang.
- Proper Dress: St. Peter's Basilica in Rome has a simple dress code: No shorts, bare shoulders or miniskirts. This applies to both men and women. This is to help emphasize the dignity of the church and of the Holy Eucharist. Remember that our attire and our behavior affect not only us but also teach the young through symbol what we believe.

Is the Basilica dress code too strict? There may be days where we're coming from or going to something that prevents us from dressing up, but certainly we could take the Basilica's rule as a good standard. Another standard I've heard is that we should simply make sure that we are not dressed up more on any other day of the week than Sunday. The point of this rule is to make sure that we hold the Sunday Eucharist to be more important and worthy than anything else we do in the week. A final rule some use is to ask ourselves how would we dress if we were going to meet the president? Do we dress better or worse for our Lord?

2nd - Receiving Holy Communion

On approaching the Eucharist we should bow or genuflect. When we receive just the Host or just the Chalice we are still receiving both the Body and Blood of Jesus. Both are fully present under each form. If we are walking around the chalice as not to receive it, we would still make a bow to it.

To receive: We say 'Amen' and then either keep our mouth open where the priest or minister can place the host or we form our hands like a "throne" for our Lord: one hand on top of the other like a cross. 'We receive communion, we don't take it' – If we receive on the hand we should consume it within sight of the minister. In other words do not walk away – I and I am asking other ministers of Communion to do the same: follow those who do not immediately receive and ask them to please do so. This will cut down on the chance for sacrilege.

If you see someone walking away with a host and not consuming, please either ask them to receive or alert the priest or an usher who could then ask them. The Eucharist is a gift, but it is a gift that must be protected. If you find a host on the ground or in a pew, please return it to the priest. Once a host or the wine is consecrated it remains truly the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Our Lord until it loses its form (when the host is so broken down that it no longer has the appearances of bread or the wine is so diluted that it no longer has the appearances and property of wine – the matter is important in the existence of a Sacrament)

Once we have received Communion at Mass we should return to our pew and give thanks to God for the incredible gift we have received – a glance at the crucifix will remind us of what it cost the Lord and what Love has motivated Him.

3rd - Bringing Communion to the Homebound

- If you or a loved one need Communion brought to a hospital or home, please let us know. If you have in the past but are not a currently listed Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion and you want to bring communion to a family member or friend, please contact one of the clergy before doing so.
- If you are bringing Communion to the sick or homebound, please remember to go directly to the person's place of residence (please do not bring Our Lord into the grocery store or out to breakfast or such). If for some reason you end up with an extra host or portion of a host, please either immediately return to the church, or consume. No one should be walking around with a host or portion of a host in their pyx. It is the Lord.

4th – Who should receive Holy Communion

The Mass is more than Holy Communion. In fact in many other countries like Mexico or some of the European countries, sometimes you attend Mass where the majority of people don't receive Communion. This is because they are aware of the guidelines that regulate the reception of Holy Communion. They are also aware that the most important aspect of the Mass is the offering of the Sacrifice of the Mass – which they can unite their prayers to regardless of whether they plan on receiving Communion. Why we wouldn't receive Communion:

- 1) If we have never prepared for and been brought into the Church through Baptism or a Profession of Faith and Confirmation. (If you are in this boat, please contact us about our upcoming Inquiry classes into the Faith that will begin in the Fall)
- 2) If we have never made our First Communion.
- 3) If we are currently living as husband and wife and have not been married by a Catholic priest or deacon or had our relationship or marriage brought into the church.
- 4) If we are aware of unconfessed mortal sin [and it's easier to sin mortally than we might think: even missing a Sunday Mass or Holyday of Obligation without legitimate reason (sick or truly unable to make it) can put us in this category].
- 5) If we ate food leading up to the Mass and won't have a full hour in before Communion.
- 6) If we have already received Communion twice that day
- 7) If we think we should be in a better frame of mind before we receive
