The Knights of Columbus also contributed to the St. Vincent de Paul Christmas dinner distribution? This is only one of the few ways they support SVDP throughout the year thanks to the funds raised during the Lenten Fish Frys.

From the Parochial Vicar's Desk...

Happy New Year!

We celebrate the great Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God on January 1st. The faithful have always believed that Mary is the Mother of God, but since the Council of Ephesus in 431, this has been formally defined. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that Jesus Christ is one divine person with two natures (one divine and one human) fully united in his person. Mary provided his human nature through her conception of him in her womb by the Holy Spirit. The Divine nature existed from all eternity as we profess in the Creed. So, in giving birth to the Word of God, Mary is truly the Mother of God (CCC 466).

Son of the parish, Brett Garland, will be serving Mass for Pope Francis on this Solemnity in St. Peter's Basilica in Rome! (EWTN should be airing it very early in the morning on Sunday.) Pray for Brett as he makes his 5-day retreat in Assisi, Italy as well. He'll be preparing spiritually in a special way for his ordination to the diaconate this spring.

Mary, Mother of God, pray for us!

In Christ,
Fr. Hartge
