Planning to attend RCIA?

Anyone planning to attend RCIA this fall needs to contact the Parish Office. We need to make sure we order enough materials for everyone. RCIA begins Tuesday, September 12 at 6:15pm in the Parish Center Conference Room.

From the Parochial Vicar's Desk...

A century in the making...

In this week's bulletin you'll find a collection envelope for the Trinity Dome at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. This is one of the largest and most beautiful churches in the country. The artist's rendering for the proposed mosaic, which will be on the inside of the large central dome, is on the right hand side of the envelope. The shrine is asking for your contribution, and is of course an entirely free will offering.

This church is a wonderful pilgrimage place for anyone, but especially for those who participate on the March for Life each January. We've sent buses to the march these past two years, and have enjoyed the vigil Mass for Life in the beautiful basilica with many cardinals, bishops, priests, deacons, religious and thousands of faithful packing the pews and aisles. Such a congregation is a testament to the strength of the Catholic faith in the United States.

We've been excited to list in the "Banns of Marriage" of the upcoming marriage of Sarah Peterson and John Bolte V. "Banns" means announcement. In old usage, such banns were published in order to give people a chance to bring forth unknown information that might impede someone from entering into a marriage. Nowadays, we like to announce upcoming marriages so that we can pray for them as a parish as they draw nearer to God's altar. We're very excited for their upcoming marriage! Please keep Sarah and John in your prayers in these coming weeks.

...by the way the Trinity Dome is a century in the making, not Sarah and John's marriage. They're just in their 20s.

In Christ,
Fr. Hartge
