Happy Anniversary Father Hahn, Father Hartge and Father Dooley!

July marks the 1-year anniversary Father Hahn, Father Hartge and Father Dooley came to Saint Colman. What a blessing they are to us! You are invited to join us for an informal brunch after morning Mass on July 11. I realize many of you will be working at this time, but this is the best time given their schedules between the four parishes, and they didn't want "anything big". Please RSVP to the Parish Office by July 6 so that we can plan accordingly for food and drink.
Email: office@stcolmanwch.org or call 335.5000. If your schedule does not allow for you to join us, please feel free to send cards and emails to the me in the Parish Office, and I'll be glad to forward them on.

Thank you!

Tina

From the Parochial Vicar's Desk...

This weekend we welcome Fr. John Matthew, CFIC. He is coming to our parish through the Missionary Cooperation Plan through the Diocese of Columbus. Pope Francis reminded us in Evangelii Gaudium, "Each Christian and every community must discern the path that the Lord points out, but all of us are asked to obey his call to go forth from our own comfort zone in order to reach all the 'peripheries' in need of the light of the Gospel" (20). Supporting the missions through this effort is just one way we can "go out" to meet our brothers and sisters in Christ.

The Diocese of Columbus website has this to say about the Missionary Cooperation Plan:

"Representatives from about 38 mission organizations will be speaking at Masses throughout the diocese between April and September. They come from as far as Africa, India, and Asia. This is part of the annual Missionary Cooperation Plan (MCP), which was started in the late 1930's.

MCP is a way of centralizing the efforts of missionary organizations from around the world who wish to appeal to Catholics in the United States and at the same time, relate to parishioners, first hand, their mission experiences and personally appeal for prayers and support.

The plan gives parishioners an opportunity to learn about missions at home and abroad and an opportunity to financially assist the mission organizations in their efforts to spread the Gospel.

Please extend a warm welcome to the missionaries as they share their faith stories in your parish."
