The Parish will be providing the meat and orange drink. Please sign up in advance so we know how much to buy. Everyone attending is asked to bring a salad or vegetable if your last name begins with A-L and a dessert if your last name begins with M-Z. BYOB or any other drink you prefer.

There will be kids' games and music! Join us as we bring back this summer event of fellowship and fun!!!

Schedule Your Directory Picture!

Online scheduling is now open for the Directory (weekdays only)! Photos will be taken August 17, 18 and 19 in the Parish Center. Go to www.ucdir.com. Church code is oh2036. Password is summer17 to get into the scheduling system. Volunteers will be taking appointments after Masses the next two weekends in the Parish Center if you don't want to schedule online. This photo will also be the one we use for the online directory coming soon with our new parish database system. So even if you are not interested in purchasing photographs, please still get your picture taken for the directory. We need a minimum 150 households to participate. Contact Tina in the Parish Office if you have questions or need assistance.

From the Parochial Vicar's Desk...

This is truly an exciting time of the summer, and I don't mean because of the St. Peter/ St. Sylvester Mission Trip to Mexico... It's FAIR WEEK! Best wishes to all of our youth who have worked hard on 4H projects. I know you will represent yourselves, your families and your parish with great class and dignity. Related, Fr. Hahn and Fr. Dooley made verbal commitments to me that they would pay top dollar for a winning rabbit, goat, or hog to keep, cherish, and care for. See them for payment and details. When they say that I've offered to keep said livestock in my room, you'll know that's made up.

Our food booth will surely once again be a tremendous hit and benefit to the fair goers. Thank you in advance to all who have signed up to work, most especially the day captains and Mr. Dan Stahl for his commitment to be this year's fair booth chair. As many of you know, the volunteer position of fair booth chair is very prestigious. The pay is not good, but the heavenly rewards of such a sacrifice are out of this world. Please prayerfully consider how you might be able to serve as fair booth chair next year. Also, keep in mind that yours truly is praying about this too, and God might make me aware of a few good candidates to ask. ☺

Please be aware, too, of our upcoming RCIA, which has been in the bulletin and begins in September. As you see your friends and neighbors at the fair who have expressed an interest in the Catholic Faith, but have not taken the step to learn more through RCIA, please encourage them. The mission to invite others to Jesus is always in season. Likewise, if you see Catholic friends and neighbors at the fair, but have not seen them at Mass, a personal invitation back to the sacraments might be all they needed to hear. We invite; we don't coerce, but that invitation is more important than we know.

It's my great pleasure to bring with me so many prayer intentions from St. Colman with me to Our Lady of Guadalupe. It's an honor to know so many of you so well, and to bring your joys and sorrows with me to this special and holy place.

Blessings,
Fr. Hartge

Its Mission is to extend the grace and truth of Jesus to all who come; to equip everyone to become His disciples; to be a catalyst for improving the spiritual and physical life of our community. Its Vision is to see lives change by becoming followers of Jesus leading to our entire community being transformed by Him, ultimately leading to God being praised.*

Many volunteer hours are needed to support this vital ministry.
