Hike for Hospice St. Colman Team

This is the last week to register for the Hike on Sunday, April 29 at 3:00pm beginning at Merchants Bank (rain or shine).

Registration forms are in the back of church and in the Parish Office. Registration fee is $10 which includes a free t-shirt and pizza after the walk/run.

⇒ Make checks payable to Hospice of Fayette County

⇒ List "St. Colman" as your Team Name

⇒ Return your $10 registration fee and form to the Parish Office no later than April 27.

Spring Cleaning your Flower Beds?

Consider donating some of your perennials that bloom in the summer and fall to the church. We have some areas around the buildings that could use more color once the Easter flowers have bloomed.

(That's what we do with the leftover altar flowers at Easter.) Be sure to label them with the name, when they bloom and what type of sun they need.

From the Desk of the Parochial Vicar...

1) As you consider nominations for the next parish council please do so with some of these points in mind. The council's primary relationship is with the pastor, although many groups can inform the council of various needs and even recognize talents in the parish. A parish council has many purposes, not the least of which is to investigate, study and discuss matters of concern to the parish. A parish council has many functions including participating in pastoral planning. The council members should make it a point to recognize individual talents in the parish that can help the parish fulfill its mission of building up the Kingdom of God in our area. In any case, this is a body that makes recommendations to the pastor, who is ultimately responsible for seeing that certain goals are met and objectives carried out.

2) On Sunday, April 22 at 5:15 p.m., the Diocese of Columbus will be celebrating its 150th Anniversary with a special Mass at St. Joseph Cathedral. All are welcome to attend.

3) We recognize Sunday as the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Please pray that more young men and women will be generous in answering the call to priesthood and religious life. We pray in a special way for those 5 men who will be ordained transitional deacons on May 4, and for the 5 men, including Deacon Brett Garland, who will be ordained to the priesthood on May 26.

Mary most Holy,
as a young woman
living in obscurity
you nurtured with loving care
the Word of God made flesh.
Please protect and accompany
all young men and women,
especially from our parish,
who are called to a vocation to priesthood or religious life.
Amen.

Brett Garland to be Ordained May 26th

Details have been finalized for Brett's ordination weekend in May.

Saturday, May 26: Deacon Brett Garland will be ordained to the priesthood at 10:00am at St. Paul the Apostle Church in Westerville. Invitations to his ordination will be mailed to all registered members of the parish in the coming weeks. All are welcome to attend.

Sunday, May 27: Father Brett Garland will celebrate his first Mass here at St. Colman at 10:30am. All are welcome to attend this mass with a luncheon to follow. Reservations are necessary for the lunch and will be collected through May 15 by emailing office@stcolmanwch.org.

Vestments: Thank you to everyone who contributed to the vestment collection for Brett. We collected enough money to cover the cost of his vestments and some of his vessels. While we are no longer collecting money through the Parish Office, you may still give him a gift at his Mass of Thanksgiving on May 27 or at his address: 212 E Broad St, Columbus, OH 43215. He is also in the process of registering at Generations Religious Gifts in Columbus.

St. Vincent de Paul Collection will be taken next weekend at the doors after Mass as it is the 5th Weekend of the month.

Mother's Day Spiritual Bouquets

Spiritual Bouquets are prayers, or in this case, Intentions that are offered by someone in honor of, or memory of another. These are a wonderful way to commemorate special occasions or dates in the life of the family or the church. Everyone needs prayer, and this is an opportunity to come together as a community in honor of someone who has been an important part of our lives: our Mothers, Grandmothers, Godmothers, Aunts or someone who has had a motherly influence in our lives.

Honor the women in your life with a spiritual bouquet. The names will be listed in the bulletin and included in the General Intercessions Mother's Day Weekend, May 12 and 13.

The Bouquet consists of a card inside a donation envelope. A donation of $10 is requested for each Intention. You keep the inside card and give it to the person in each Bouquet (one name per envelope). Give the inside card in its envelope to the person you are honoring. Complete the outside envelope with your Intention information, put the $10 donation inside the envelope, and put in it the collection basket, or return it to the Parish Office no later than May 7.

Carpool for Brett's Ordination

Patty Brown is planning to attend Brett's ordination Mass in Columbus and is willing to drive if others would like to go with her. Please call her at 740-497-0673 to coordinate details.

If you would like to coordinate a separate carpool, email Tina in the Parish Office with details, and she will put your information in the bulletin.

Miryante Orphanage

Fr. Erineo Mushuhukye of Wekemere Parish and Miryante Orphans Home in Uganda will be visiting our area from mid-April to mid-May. He will be here at St. Colman the weekend of May 5 & 6.

He will be bringing updates from Miryante as well as seeking support from the parishes in the consortium and beyond. Let us welcome him with open arms and generous hearts.

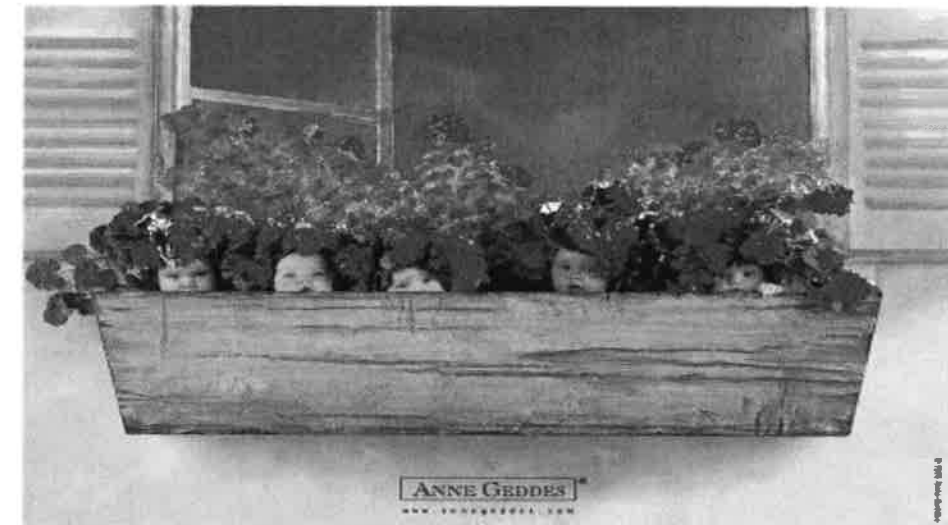

Bulletin Ad Space Available:

We have empty spots to fill on next year's bulletin cover beginning July 1. Please consider advertising your company with us! Small ads are $200. Large ads are $300. Contact Tina in the Parish Office by May 4.

2018 WORLD DAY of PRAYER for VOCATIONS

3,405

The number of graduate-level seminarians in the U.S. in 2017. About 2,200 additional seminarians are studying at the college level.

The sheep follow the Good Shepherd, because they hear and recognize his voice. (cf John 10:4)

Highlights from the Pope's Letter

for 2018 World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Pope Francis, in his letter for today, points out that when Jesus returned after his time of prayer and struggle in the desert, he did three things before he began his mission. He listened to the word, discerned the content of the mission entrusted to him by the Father, and proclaimed that he came to accomplish it today (Lk 4:16-21).

This model—listen, discern, live—can be followed by all of us as we try to live out our vocation. Here are some insights from the Holy Father:

LISTEN | God comes silently and discretely, without imposing on our freedom. Thus it can happen that his voice is drowned out by the many worries and concerns that fill our minds and hearts. We need to learn to silence the noise around us to listen.

DISCERN | We have to resist the temptations of ideology and negativity, and to discover, in our relationship with the Lord, the places, the means, and situations through which he calls us. Discernment requires attentiveness, not distraction!

LIVE | Our vocation is lived today! The Christian mission is now! Each one of us is called—whether to the lay life in marriage, to the priestly life in the ordained ministry, or to a life of special consecration—in order to become a witness of the Lord, here and now.

Prayed to the Priesthood

About seven years ago in upstate New York, Sue O'Neal met a young man in her parish named Francis Vivacqua.

Seeing something in him, she asked him if he had ever considered the priesthood. It was a "wow" moment for the young man, setting him on a long path to figuring out his true call in life.

Remarkably, every single day since their encounter, Sue prayed a Divine Mercy Chaplet for Francis. Years after she began praying, he entered the seminary. In 2016, Francis was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Albany. Sue continues to pray for him daily.

Steps to a Vocation

How men were involved before seminary

A 2017 survey of newly ordained priests showed that most were regularly involved in their parishes. Here's what they did:

altar servers	75%
lectors	52%
extraordinary ministers	43%
youth/campus ministry	35%
catechists	34%
confirmation sponsors	32%

A Financial Wall

Overcoming barriers to a vocation

An estimated 10,000 individuals are discerning a vocation to the priesthood or religious life in the US annually. However, one study showed that as many as 40% are blocked from pursuing their call due to student loans.

Most religious communities cannot assume any debt, and most dioceses allow only a limited amount of debt before accepting a candidate.

A Catholic organization called the Labouré Society helps men and women resolve education loans in order to enter the seminary, convent, or monastery. The organization brings together groups of aspirants, trains them to fund raise, then sends them out across the U.S. to tell their vocation stories. Nearly 250 young men and women have been able to enter formation with the help of Labouré.

Is your vocation blocked by debt? Or do you want to help someone who feels called? Visit labouresociety.org.

LABOURÉ

Why do Seminarians Need our Prayers?

Because formation to become a priest is extremely hard work! Some have likened it to getting a master's degree while having a full-time job. The man's "job," in this case, though, is forming his heart and mind to be like Jesus, the Good Shepherd. Prayer and study are priorities, but recreation and down time are also important—as is spending time with a good spiritual director. A typical day at the seminary may look like this:

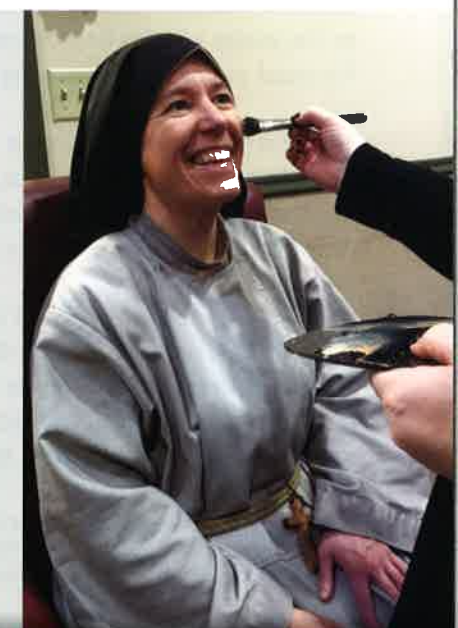

- 6:30 am Rise
- 7:15 am Morning Prayer
- 7:30 am Holy Mass
- 8:00 am Breakfast
- Classes and study time
- Noon Lunch
- Afternoon classes and study
- Sports and exercise
- 5:00 pm Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
- 6:00 pm Evening Prayer
- 6:15 pm Benediction
- 6:30 pm Supper
- 7:30 pm Music practice, formation conferences, or personal and study time
- 11:00 pm Retire

An Uncommon Sight

Um, sister, is that eye shadow?

Here's one of the only times you'll see a religious sister wearing makeup—preparing for a TV show! Recently Sister Clare Matthiass, CFR, appeared on EWTN to talk about her book Discerning Religious Life. The book has been a hit among young Catholic women looking for solid advice on figuring out their vocations. Particularly popular is the chapter "The Six Month Discernment Challenge," in which sister advises (among other things), "Don't date and discern at the same time!" 206 pp. www.vianneyvocations.com
